TIME	SESSIONS
14:15 - 14:45	Panel: Communicating for Visibility and Effective Outreach            Recent SDG reviews underscore that as we emerge from the global pandemic, there has been a slowdown in SDG progress. The international community has to accelerate along known paths yet at the same time explore new paths to deliver assistance to less developed regions. Expanding the ecosystem to the private sector, investors and civil society will result in many benefits from support for community outreach to sustainable, long-term collaboration. With a changing landscape and with more entities getting involved, how do we make sure we make this as effective, and impactful as possible? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Identifying new partners for greater outreach and visibility</li> <li>Increasing awareness of programs throughout communities</li> <li>How can we create more active, sustainable, and long-term collaborations?</li> </ul> Irina Bokova, Former DG, UNESCO and Patron of the International Science Council (ISC)  Kimberlee Wells, CEO, TBWA - Group Australia &amp; TBWA - Sustain  Dr. Abdulaziz Ali Almagushi, Assistant Director General, Sultan Bin Abdulaziz Al Saud Foundation  Moderator: Rawan Radwan, Journalist, Arab News
14:45 - 15:10	In Conversation: Future of Communication – Digital Connectivity            Technology and communication channels are evolving quickly, for example the metaverse offers new and cost-effective ways of engaging with ecosystems. Making the most of these new opportunities requires investment and new skill and IOs are exploring different avenues such as tech partnerships. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Explore the digital technologies to achieve the UN SDGs</li> <li>Partnering with tech for effective delivery and greater reach</li> <li>Discussing how the metaverse will work alongside multilateral institutions</li> <li>Experiencing the SDGs in virtual reality</li> </ul> Dr. Jasir Alherbish, CEO, Heritage Commission  Dr. Christina Yan Zhang, CEO and Founder, The Metaverse Institute  Lawrence Eta, Vice President, Digital and Analytics, Royal Commission for AIUa  Moderator: Sallyann Della Casa, Founder &amp; Chief Identity Hacker, GLEAC
